What we can do for you

Who we are

- The aerodrome was built during the 60's and was predominantly used as an air force base, with limited civilian traffic. Closed to civilian traffic during the conflict, it was reopened again as a military base under the control of UN on January 16th, 2000.
- KFOR handed over the responsibility of the Airport operations to UNMIK on 1st of April 2004. These responsibilities were placed in ATCS and PEAP.
- ATCS and PEAP were merged under the name of Prishtina International Airport J.S.C. on 30 June 2005.
- PIA operates part of the airspace over the territory of Kosovo on behalf of KFOR.
